DISCOVER THE CORE WITH UCLA CENTER X

The UCLA Center X Common Core Institute will provide participants with the opportunity to explore, analyze and dialogue around planning and implementing the Common Core State Standards in K-12 classrooms. In this institute, led by UCLA Center X Subject Matter Projects and their teacher leaders, participants will “go deep” into the standards in preparation for Common Core implementation. Teachers, administrators, and out-of-the-classroom specialists and/or coaches are welcome!

The UCLA Center X Common Core Institute will include:

• Lower and upper elementary multi-discipline literacy strands
• Content (including World Languages, Arts, and Physical Education) and interdisciplinary secondary sessions with a focus on disciplinary literacy
• Optional end-of-day planning sessions for grade-alike, subject-alike, or school teams

Outcomes from this institute include:

• Dialogue and strategies for implementation
• Deeper understanding of Common Core instructional shifts
• Strategies to promote equity and access with the Common Core State Standards
• Knowledge and exploration of performance assessments
• Collaborative work groups in content and/or grade-alike groups
