NEW!!!

FREEDOM TO EXPRESS:
Promoting Civic Literacy, Reading and Writing for English Language Learners

Discover a new curriculum developed specifically for English Learners that strengthens content knowledge of the history and principles of the Bill of Rights and First Amendment, while building English Language proficiency and critical thinking skills to apply democratic principles to real life scenarios in our American democracy.

This innovative instructional unit includes ready-to-use lessons and student handouts to address:
★ Why Freedom of Expression?
★ Why English Learners?
★ How can I provide sheltered instruction that builds civic literacy and supports the four domains of language? Includes step-by-step directions to utilize:
  ▪ Structured Student Talk
  ▪ Highly Structured Guided Practice
  ▪ Graphic Organizers
  ▪ Effective Corrective Feedback and Teacher Monitoring
  ▪ Writing to Assess Civic Literacy and Language Proficiency

Order yours today!!

ORDER FORM

Freedom to Express:
Promoting Civic Literacy, Reading, and Writing for English Language Learners

(Please print clearly)

Name: ____________________________ School: ____________________________

District: __________________________ Phone: ____________________________

Mailing Address:

Street: ____________________________________________

City: ____________________________ State: ____________________________ Zip Code: ____________________________

Email: ____________________________________________

Number of books ordered: ______ x $25.00 = $_________

(add sales tax) (add shipping charge of $1.25 per book) $_________

Total of Order

Mail to:
Michelle Herzog, Ed.D.
Consultant III, History-Social Science
Los Angeles County Office of Education
Division of Curriculum & Instructional Services
9300 Imperial Highway, ECW-236
Downey, CA 90242
Phone: 562-922-6331 Fax: 562-401-5405
Email: Herzog_Michelle@lacoe.edu