Resources to help students learn about Iraq and talk about war...

C-SPAN in the Classroom

http://www.c-span.org/classroom/current/iraq_war.asp

With the recent military action in Iraq and multiple sources of information, C-SPAN in the Classroom has compiled a resource page that uses C-SPAN's ongoing television and web resources for teaching about the war with Iraq. There you can: view information about the U.S. STRATEGY & OPERATIONS, learn about American military TRAINING & WEAPONRY and watch the REACTIONS TO WAR from elected officials and the American people

Other WAR WITH IRAQ resources from C-SPAN.org include:
--a collection of DOCUMENTS, LINKS, AND CONTEXTUAL RESOURCES
http://www.c-span.org/resources/iraq.asp

Constitutional Rights Foundation

In response to the onset of military action in Iraq, Constitutional Rights Foundation has developed "War in Iraq," a series of Online Lessons and Web Links. To OPEN, simply click on http://crf-usa.org/Iraqwar_html/iraqwar_home.html

Crisis Management Institute

The Crisis Management Institute has developed the following materials:
• Parent's Guide to Talking with Children about War with Iraq (also available in Spanish)
• School Guides to Talking with Children about War--an elementary school version and a middle/high school version.
• Thoughts for administrators on dealing with this issue.
These can be found at: www.cmionline.org

Santa Clara County Office of Education has developed a wonderful web site devoted to Iraq. It has a great deal of information for students and teachers.
www.sccoe.k12.ca.us/conflict