The Los Angeles County Office of Education presents a one-day follow-up training and networking opportunity for schools engaged in project-based learning throughout Los Angeles County. Participants will be able to reflect, share and sharpen their focus on building 21st century competencies to prepare all students for college, career, and civic life. An in-depth focus on critical thinking, collaboration, communication, and creativity and innovation will be highlighted. There will be ample opportunity for schools to share their work and engage in meaningful dialogue about successes and challenges of project based learning at a variety of school settings. Schools are encouraged to bring teams of educators engaged in the work with sample projects to share.
