Thank You, Teachers!

Even COVID-19 can't keep Rowland USD from celebrating and honoring their Employees of the Year. This year, District Classified Employee of the Year and District Administrator of the Year! Watch Guy Myers's Teacher of the Year profile. Watch video from St. Anne's Maternity Home. Thank you for everything that you do every day, and especially for stepping up during this pandemic. The LA County Board of Education has officially recognized El Día del Maestro, the Day of the Teacher, in L.A. County. In a resolution, the Board honored LACOE teachers for their dedication to making a positive difference in so many lives. During this Teacher Appreciation Week, let's take a moment to show our appreciation than ever for the hard work and dedication with which great teachers touch so many lives. Every parent who has embraced remote learning in these trying times has a deeper appreciation for the teachers in our lives and enjoy some stories below of educators rising to the challenge of COVID-19.

Thank you, teachers, for everything that you do every day, and especially for stepping up during this pandemic. The LA County Board of Education has officially recognized El Día del Maestro, the Day of the Teacher, in L.A. County. In a resolution, the Board honored LACOE teachers for their dedication to making a positive difference in so many lives. During this Teacher Appreciation Week, let's take a moment to show our appreciation than ever for the hard work and dedication with which great teachers touch so many lives. Every parent who has embraced remote learning in these trying times has a deeper appreciation for the teachers in our lives and enjoy some stories below of educators rising to the challenge of COVID-19.