Consideration for special populations - Foster Youth

Mental health services and supports for students

Welfare check by DCFS

Encourage school site staff to build a responsive school culture

Caregivers (mental health services, social/relational and conflict resolution skills)

Share resources with students and parents

Conduct a check-in meeting with student

Touch base, offer support and link to students

Provide professional development on behavior management or mentored check-ins for students

Provide teachers with professional development on behavior management in distance learning tools for behavior support (e.g., teams, apps)

Consider implementing restorative practices

Equip adolescents with the tools to support them with a trusted adult

Build capacity of all those who interact with students

Recognizing signs and symptoms of stress

Establish a systemic social emotional support network

Allocate significant time and resources upon needs are addressed

Check in and connect students and parents

Connectivity, and offer support to ensure student well-being

Follow-up with students who have not connected to school

NGO Food Distribution sites and shared with students

Food distribution sites and shared with students

Follow Mulit-Tiered System of Supports

Provide teachers with professional development on student needs

Homelessness have access to technology

Provide teachers with professional development on student needs

 horror and conflict resolution skills

Assess families for needs and provide access to resources

Referral counselors for students

Offer virtual parent/caregiver support groups

Assess families for needs and provide access to resources

Incorporate these practices into their teaching

Partnering with the community to build capacity

Newcomer Toolkit

Exemplars for Migratory Children and Students

Nearpod: Social Emotional Learning with

School Specialty, Inc: Inclusion & Social-Emotional Learning

CA Dept of Education: Help for Students in Crisis

National Center for Homeless Education: Help for Students in Crisis

Education Week: Five Ideas for a Pandemic-Ready Classroom

Resources for using PBIS to increase racial-ethnic equity (English and Spanish version available)

Classcraft: 15 Tips for Developing Positive Mental Health

LACOE: Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports

Second Step: Resources for Educators and Parents

YogaOutlet: How to Practice Mindfulness

Caresolace.com – Simple, Fast, Secure Mental Health

Warning Signs of Anxiety in Young Children

Second Step: Resources for Educators and Parents

Planning Implications