The Comprehensive Sex Education Network (CSEN) is a series of four meetings on non-consecutive days. This professional learning community provides support to districts and schools in meeting the requirements of California Healthy Youth Act, as well as best practices in delivering high quality, age-appropriate, medically accurate, and comprehensive sexual health education. The network will provide the opportunity for CSE experts and educators to share successes, challenges, and guidance for teaching sex education in the classroom.

Topics may include:

- Adolescent sexual health in Los Angeles County
- The California Healthy Youth Act
- Challenges and strategies for comprehensive sex education
- LGBTQ issues
- Student rights regarding access to reproductive healthcare
- Minor consent and confidentiality
- Staff development opportunities
