The role of the FYSCP Counselor/Ed Liaison is to support the academic needs of current and former foster and probation youth residing in Los Angeles County.

FYSCP Counselors/Ed Liaisons work closely with school districts and school staff, probation officers, social workers, and many other local child welfare agencies in a collaborative team effort to meet the needs of foster and probation youth. Our staff is able to provide technical assistance in the following areas:

- Academic Assistance: Assist child welfare agencies with detailed transcript evaluations to determine a student’s AB 216 status; assist with ensuring a student is on track to graduate; attend CFT meetings to provide detailed academic information.

- Placement Services: Provide school enrollment services for foster and probation youth transitioning placements.

- Tutoring Services: Provide tutoring referrals. For more information please visit www.lacoee.edu (Student Services-Foster Youth Services-Academic Support).

- Advocacy: Provide assistance in determining the educational “best interest” for students on probation or in foster care, as well as interpretation of foster youth/probation laws.

- Training: Facilitate trainings for child welfare agencies and their partners on topics related to moving the academic needle for students on probation or in foster care.
