Whether you are new to meeting the educational needs of homeless and foster youth, need a refresher, or simply want to expand your knowledge, this all-day interactive workshop will cover the essentials that will help you be successful. Laws, policies and best practices will be highlighted; participants will be able to immediately apply the information as they work through real case scenarios. School and district level staff who would benefit most from this workshop are homeless and foster youth liaisons, front office personnel, principal, assistant principals, dean of students, counselors, and new site and district administrators. Topics include:

- McKinney — Vento Homeless Assistance Act
- Assembly Bill 490 — Foster Youth
- State Laws: Recent legislative changes and the impact on service
- Impact of Educational Responsibilities: School placement, attendance, transportation, student records, equal access, and much more.
- Barriers
- Resources
- Community Collaboration
- Focused Panel Discussions
