

Board Meeting – December 13, 2022

Item VI. Consent Calendar Recommendations

C. Adoption of Board Resolution No. 22: National Human Trafficking Awareness Month, January 2023

The Superintendent recommends that the County Board adopt Board Resolution No. 22 as part of the regular County Board meeting on December 13, 2022; and further recommends that the County Board declare January 2023 as Human Trafficking Awareness Month and calls on districts, schools and community organizations in Los Angeles County to observe this month with appropriate programs and activities to increase awareness of this horrific crime and promote prevention education to help end human trafficking.

NEXT STEPS:

- Send out LACOE Communication to the 80 districts to encourage districts, schools and community organizations to observe this month and day with appropriate programs and activities.
- LACOE's Human Trafficking Youth Prevention Education (HYTPE) Demonstration Program focuses on preventing the human trafficking of youth in Los Angeles County through skill-based prevention education for educators and students in grades 6 - 12. The goal is to implement the program at all 80 school districts in Los Angeles County. See video link for information: Click here
 - Utilize an informed public health approach to administer, facilitate, and monitor the HTYPE Demonstration Program focused on defining human trafficking, identifying risk and protective factors, developing and testing prevention strategies, and assuring widespread dissemination for human trafficking prevention and resources.
 - To partner with iEmpathize to build the capacity of selected schools to provide skills-based human trafficking prevention education for educators, other staff, and students and share information and resources.
 - Through partnership with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's department, iEmpathize and other community agencies, the Los Angeles County Office of Education will create and implement a Human Trafficking School Safety Protocol that will address the safety, security, and well-being of staff and students.

- To train qualified individuals employed by the local educational agencies to implement and replicate project activities throughout school districts within Los Angeles County.
 - To develop a Training Institute with the University of Southern California, Suzanne Dworak-Peck School of Social Work, to incorporate graduate level social work interns into designated school districts to provide mental health support and case management for students who may be experiencing or at-risk of experiencing human trafficking.
- We will also partner with Michelle Guymon around focus groups in support of an expanded social media campaign.

BOARD RESOLUTION

NO. 22: 2022-23

Human Trafficking Awareness Month (January 2023)

- WHEREAS, human trafficking is the recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision or obtaining of a person for labor or services through the use of force, fraud or coercion for the purpose of subjection to involuntary servitude, debt bondage, sex acts, sale of body organs or slavery; and
- WHEREAS, human trafficking is a $150 billion-a-year global enterprise and over 100,000 children and youth are commercially sexually exploited in the United States annually; and
- WHEREAS, Schools serve as hubs for recruitment often targeting the most vulnerable, including youth experiencing high levels of trauma, low parent involvement, youth with special needs and youth in out-of-home placement; and
- WHEREAS, Los Angeles County has been identified as one of the nation's high-intensity areas for human trafficking of youth, is one of the nation's most populous counties in the country and is also the site for large numbers of children and youth being victimized through commercial sexual exploitation and labor trafficking; and
- WHEREAS, Children and youth represent a major population of trafficking victims in Los Angeles County that is estimated to be 30% of the total number or higher; and
- WHEREAS, The Los Angeles County Office of Education is dedicated to supporting schools, districts and communities in Los Angeles County by providing training, technical assistance, best practices, legislative updates and resources to combat human trafficking; and
- WHEREAS, National Human Trafficking Awareness Day will be recognized on January 11, 2023, and the month of January is recognized as National Slavery and Human Trafficking Prevention Month,
- WHEREAS, LACOE will continue to collaborate with key partners and experts in this work, including the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, Los Angeles County Human Trafficking Taskforce, Los Angeles County Probation Department, Department of Children and Family Services, University of Southern California, School of Social Work, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office - Victims of Crimes, MilionKids, STAR Court, Department of Mental Health, IEmpathize and other local and community-based organizations that provide services and support for human trafficking survivors; and

WHEREAS, LACOE, in partnership with the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, will develop safety protocols for schools and share those protocols with schools to increase awareness and reduce the incidence of human trafficking in schools by taking a proactive approach; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Los Angeles County Board of Education hereby declares January 2022 as Human Trafficking Awareness Month and calls on districts, schools and community organizations in Los Angeles County to observe this month with appropriate programs and activities to increase awareness of this horrific crime and promote prevention education to help end human trafficking.

ADOPTED this 13th day of December 2022, by the Los Angeles County Board of Education in Downey, California.
