Overview

Background

The California Democracy School Civic Learning Initiative is a first of its kind approach to institutionalizing civic learning for all students across entire grade levels in schools. Originally funded by the S.D. Bechtel, Jr. Foundation and directed by the Los Angeles County Office of Education with support from the Los Angeles County Education Foundation, the initiative originally engaged 12 high schools in Los Angeles and Orange Counties over a three-year span. All 12 successfully completed the program and were awarded California Democracy School status for institutionalizing high quality civic inquiry and investigations across one or more grade levels to empower all students to acquire the knowledge, skills, and dispositions for effective life-long civic engagement. Since then, 27 additional schools have been recognized. The complete list can be found at https://www.lacoe.edu/Curriculum-Instruction/History-Social-Science/California-Democracy-School/Demonstration-Schools

Purpose

"The success of our nation and state depends on educated, informed and active citizens and residents ... For all students in California to have access to a continuum of civic learning experiences starting in kindergarten—and to effectively respond to equity issues—we must embed robust civic learning throughout the K-12 experiences, both within and beyond school walls" (California Task Force on K-12 Civic Learning, Revitalizing K-12 Civic Learning in California: A Blueprint for Action (August 2014), pp. 6, 30. https://www.cde.ca.gov/eo/in/documents/cltffinalreport.pdf

The goal of the California Democracy School Award program is to recognize elementary, middle, and high schools that are providing high quality civic learning for all students as part of an integrated curricular program or standalone curriculum across one or more grade levels.

Award Criteria

In order to qualify for the award, schools must provide evidence for institutionalizing civic learning across an entire grade level in which all students engage in the following five components of high-quality civic learning. These components can be integrated and implemented in any subject area in which all students in the designated grade level are enrolled.

- 1. Formulate an inquiry about a current public problem or issue
- 2. Research and analyze multiple perspectives about potential causes and solutions
- 3. Participate in a civil deliberation to understand different perspectives
- 4. Reach an informed conclusion
- 5. Propose a public policy solution to a policymaker

Applicants must also provide thoughtful responses to the questions below.

- Civic Outcomes for Students What civic knowledge, skills, and dispositions do students acquire? How are they assessed?
- The School Environment How is civic learning integrated into the curriculum or delivered as a stand-alone curriculum? How are outcomes assessed? What is the professional development plan for existing and new teachers? How does the learning environment support the program? How has civic learning impacted classroom climate and school culture?
- School/District Sustainability What policies are in place to build capacity and sustain the program for the future in the areas of curriculum, professional development, and accountability?

Award Process

Schools across California are invited to apply for the California Democracy School Award. Once applications are received and reviewed based on the scoring rubric, schools will be contacted to prepare for a virtual site validation visit. Schools that meet the required criteria will be recognized with a plaque and banner.
